Revision Studios of High Rolls took home the top prize at PAH-FEST film festival in Grants last weekend. Max Mitchell, High Rolls, and Molly Kellar, La Luz, shot and edited "The Spirit & The Earth" during the Pahfest festival in only two and a half days. The film, about San Jose Mission at Laguna Pueblo, was screened at the awards ceremony in Grants, NM on June 10. Part of the "Mobiflicks" contest, the San Jose Mission team competed against six other teams to win the prize. Famed director Penelope Spheeris and other celebrity judges picked "Spirit" in a tight race.

PAH-FEST, which stands for "PROJECT ACCESSIBLE HOLLYWOOD," is a new kind of digital media festival that celebrates the stories and voices of everyday people. PAH-Fest invites people from all walks of life to tell their digital stories using today's latest technology. PAH-FEST is the brainchild of Christopher Coppola and holds festivals all over the world.
